A Reliable Remedy

FOR

CATARRH

Ely's Cream Balm

is quickly absorbed.

Gives Relief at Once.

It cleanses, soothes, heals and protects the diseased membrane resulting from Catarrh and drives away a Cold in the Head quickly. Restores the Senses of Taste and Smell. Full size 50 cts. at Druggists or by mail. Liquid Cream Balm for use in atomizers 75 cts. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York.

H. H. GRANICE

Real Estate Agent,

SONOMA, CAL.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm will master catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. All druggists sell the 50 cent size. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York.

The Balm is used without pain. It does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. Ely's Cream Balm contains no cocaine, mercury nor other harmful drugs.

The Scrap Book

Its First Letter.

They were playing a game in which some one gives out the initial of some object in the room and the rest of them try to guess the object. So they tried to get the host's gray haired father into it. But he held off.

"Sure," said he, "I'm a little bad in my spelling. I'd make no hand at such a game."

"Oh, come on!" they pleaded. "You pick out some object, tell us the letter it begins with and we'll guess it."

So the old man, cajoled, finally yielded. "Well," said he, "then I will. The letter is 'F.'"

They tried and tried to guess what he meant. Knowing his weakness in spelling, his son picked "phonograph," thinking the old gentleman might imagine it began with an "F." But, no, he was wrong.

Finally they all had to give it up and appealed to him to tell the article. He looked wise and said: "Well, since ye all give up what the thing is that begins with an 'F,' I'll tell ye. It's the fwhatnot."

The Noble Nature.

It is not growing, like a tree. In bulk doth make man better be. Or standing long an oak, three hundred year.

To fall a log at last, dry, bald and sear. A lily of a day.

Is fairer far in May. Although it fall and die that night, It was the plant and flower of light. In small proportions we just beauties see.

And in short measures life may perfect be. —Ben Jonson.

A Bitter Dose.

An old negro man was riding on the train and fell asleep with mouth wide open. A mischievous drummer came along, and, having a convenient capsule of quinine in his pocket, he uncorked it and rifled it well on to the old negro's palate and the roof of his tongue.

The old negro, awakening, became much disturbed. He called for the conductor and asked, "Boss, is dere a docter on dis here train?"

"I don't know," said the conductor. "Yas, sah; I sho' is sick. I sho' is sick."

"What is the matter with you?"

"I dunno, sir, but it tastes like I busted my gail."

Dusty.

Alongside the secretary of state's desk is a great globe, standing over six feet high. One day Mr. Knox consulted it to see if it were really true that the sun never sets on our dominions nowadays or to learn something else of equal importance. The Pennsylvania statesman is the plunk of neatness and was somewhat irritated to find that the big revolving ball soiled his coat sleeve.

"William," he said sharply to the messenger and laying his finger on the globe, "there is dust there a foot thick."

"It's thicker'n dat, Mr. Secretary," replied the negro, with that familiarity that comes of mingling with greatness. "What do you mean?" demanded the premier.

"Why, youse got yuh fingah on de desert of Sahara."

Mr. Knox did badly at trying to suppress a smile.

"You'll find some on the Atlantic ocean, too," he remarked as he returned to his desk.

Not an Imitator.

Mrs. Jones, a fussy, fdgety old lady, who was called by some folks a busybody, snapped out to her pastor as he set out for a fortnight's vacation: "Satan never takes a vacation, Mr. Steenthly."

"Well, my dear Mrs. Jones," the minister cheerfully answered, "that is just why I am taking a vacation. I never did believe in imitating Satan."

Sufficient Unto the Day.

One summer day a colored man and his family of eight, who depended entirely on the town for their support, started away from home, all arrayed in their best, each carrying a bag of goodies. One of their benefactors met them on the road.

"Well, Uncle Sam, where are you going with all your family so dressed up?" was the inquiry.

"Why, boss," said Sam, "doan' you know the circus am come to town?"

"Yes, but I can't afford to go and take all my family."

"Well, boss, I tell you, it is jes' dis away wid us. We done sol' de heathin' stove 'cause de winter am fur off, but de circus am here!"

Your Task.

Let each one accept his task, a task which should fill his life. It may be very humble; it will not be the less useful. Never mind what it is so long as it exists and keeps you erect. When you have regulated it without excess, just the quantity you are able to accomplish each day, it will cause you to live in health and in joy.

Resourceful.

A butter and egg man was visited by a chap who bought four of his best eggs. This chap took the eggs home, put them on to boil, told his wife to take them off at the end of three minutes and then went upstairs to shave.

When he came down again half an hour later the eggs were still boiling away. He removed them from the pot, put them in cold water, dried them and gave them to his little daughter.

"Take these eggs back," he said, "to the man and tell him it was ducks' eggs that we wanted. If he hasn't got ducks' eggs bring the money back."

One of Shaw's Criticisms.

"Before fame came to him," said a playwright, "that great rival of mine, George Bernard Shaw, wrote theatrical criticisms for the London Saturday Review. Now, those were criticisms indeed. Nobody could praise a good play so beautifully as this critic. Nobody could roast a bad play so tellingly. Listen. Here is a sample."

And the playwright read: "I am in a somewhat foolish position concerning a play at the Opera Comique, whither I was bidden this day week. For some reason I was not supplied with a program, so that I never learned the name of the play. At the end of the second act the play had advanced about as far as an ordinary dramatist would have brought it five minutes after the first rising of the curtain, or, say, as far as Ibsen would have brought it ten years before that event. Taking advantage of the second interval to stroll out into the Strand for a little exercise, I unfortunately forgot all about my business and actually reached home before it occurred to me that I had not seen the end of the play. Under these circumstances it would ill become me to dramatize on the merits of the work or its performance. I can only offer the management my apologies."

And the playwright read: "I beg your pardon, sir."

The doctor raised both his hands with a grand upward-sweep and said: "Can you measure the ineffable? Can you comprehend the infinite?"

"Well, make you a nice coat, sir," returned the puzzled assistant. Tapping the doctor's shin, he said: "That's about the length, sir?"

"Longer!" ejaculated the doctor in determined tones.

"There, sir?"

"Longer!" thundered the great man. The tailor remonstrated. As a technical professional he could give points on tailoring to any preacher that ever wore a head.

"If you have it any longer, you won't be able to walk," he remarked conclusively.

The doctor looked on him compassionately and, once more extending his arms toward the skies, said confidentially: "I don't want to walk; I want to soar!"

A Queen's Critical Brother.

Marie Antoinette's brother Joseph could not bear the rouge pot, and one evening when the queen was going out, being heavily rouged, the emperor was looking on. Pointing to a lady present who was excessively bedaubed with paint, Joseph remarked facetiously: "A little more under the eyes! Lay on the rouge like fury, as that lady does!"—Hassard's "Louis XVI."

Practice.

New Clerk—I should like two weeks' vacation, sir. Boss—What! Why, this is only your first week with us. New Clerk—Yes, sir, but once I get accustomed to the position I may be able to stand it longer.

Misunderstanding.

Well—I hear their engagement was broken off through a misunderstanding. Belle—Yes; he understood she had money, and she understood he had.

Sensible men show their sense by saying much in few words.—Franklin

Started the Tailor.

A London tailor was once measuring Dr. Parker, who had a quaint sense of humor for an overcoat, when suddenly the doctor broke forth in his most sepulchral voice:

"Can you measure the ineffable? Can you comprehend the infinite?"

"Well, make you a nice coat, sir," returned the puzzled assistant. Tapping the doctor's shin, he said: "That's about the length, sir?"

"Longer!" ejaculated the doctor in determined tones.

"There, sir?"

"Longer!" thundered the great man. The tailor remonstrated. As a technical professional he could give points on tailoring to any preacher that ever wore a head.

"If you have it any longer, you won't be able to walk," he remarked conclusively.

Lundfoot and His Snuff.

The shop of a Dublin tobacconist named Lundfoot was destroyed by fire. While he was gazing dolefully into the smoldering ruins he noticed that his poorer neighbors were gathering the snuff from the canister. He tested the snuff for himself and discovered that the fire had largely improved its pungency and aroma. This was a hint worth profitting by. He secured another shop, built a lot of ovens, subjected the snuff to a heating process, gave the brand a name and in a few years became rich through an accident which he at first thought had ruined him. It was Lundfoot to whom the great orator and wit, John Philip Curran, suggested the celebrated motto to the coat of arms emblazoned by the successful tobacconist upon the panels of his carriage, a motto which had its meaning in Latin and English and was significant in both, "Cold Rides" (echo laughs).

"Cold," it may be mentioned, was a nickname bestowed on tobacconists at the time, owing to a prominent article in their stock of trade.

Good Hands Properly Recognized.

Mrs. Pike was praising her husband and his good qualities to her sister and concluded her eulogy with this statement: "And my husband has always been good to his employees and always encourages those who work for him."

"You mean he is always ready to give praise where praise is due," said the sister.

"Yes, indeed," answered Mrs. Pike. "When one of his men does good work he is quick to say so. Night after night, after he has been late at the office, I hear him murmuring in his sleep, 'That's good; that's good!' And he always reluctantly confesses that he was dreaming about the good work the men are doing at the office. Oh, I'm so glad!"

The Aim of Life.

We live in deeds, not years; in thoughts, not breaths; in feelings, not in figures on a dial. We should count time by heart throbs. He most lives Who thinks most, feels the noblest, acts the best.

And whose heart beats quickest lives the longest— Lives in one hour more than in years do some.

Whose fat blood sleeps as it slips along their veins.

Life is but a means unto an end, that end Beginning, mean and end to all things— God.

The dead have all the glory of the world. —Philip James Bailey.

Almost a Creation.

During Governor Rollins' administration a representative of the legislature of New Hampshire from one of the rural districts in the northern section of the state was presented to the governor for the first time. Being somewhat unfamiliar with "statehouse etiquette," he addressed his excellency as "most high."

The governor informed the gentleman from the rural district that there was but one "most high, he who had made everything from nothing."

"Well, governor," replied the country legislator, "I'll give you credit for making a justle of the peace out of a man up in my town that is about as near to nothing as ever walked on two legs."

Graft Prosecution Gets a Set Back

The graft prosecution and the masquerading "reformers" behind it received a set back at the primaries held in San Francisco Tuesday, when Mr. Heney, the special graft prosecutor received but 7,396 votes out of 36,548 polled. Mr. Fickert, his opponent, received 17,104 votes. There is an old and trite saying that "figures do not lie but that liars some times figure," but as the above figures are the result of the official count of the ballots cast they can be relied upon as being as accurate as they are significant. They prove conclusively, as asserted in these columns months ago, that Heneyism and the graft prosecution are played out. The people of San Francisco are sick and tired of the whole business and it has gradually dawned upon them that hate, revenge, spite and political chicanery are behind the whole business.

The people of graft-prosecution-ridden San Francisco are to be congratulated on the nomination of Mr. Crocker for Mayor and Mr. Fickert for the District Attorneyship, because it insures their election and the retirement of those who have so long plagued the suffering people of San Francisco to gratify the personal spite of some and further the ambitions of others who would rule or ruin things commercially in that city.

The Amenities of Journalism in Amador.

Jackson, the county seat of Amador county in this State, and presumably peopled by civilized beings and not by barbarians, boasts of two local newspapers. As is usually the case, the editors of these papers, spurred on by others, are evidently hated business rivals and bitter personal enemies. In a recent issue of the "Dispatch" its editor hands this out to his despised contemporary in that good old "Arizona Kicker" style of journalism in vogue in this State! In these many moons ago:

"R. Webb, Jackson's professional mean man, who started out many years ago to develop in himself all the despicable characteristics of the skunk family, and who has succeeded in his ambition, broke loose again last week in his so-called newspaper. This time he vents his spleen on the baseball team, a group of young men who are earnestly trying to help the town, and to overcome some of the damage done it by Webb's scurrilous sheet. * * * It is very strange that a man who persistently refuses to support, and who even opposes, every progressive movement in his adopted city, should yet expect the people of the city to furnish him aid and comfort. He has found in this instance that there are some who will not grovel in the dust before a treasonable enemy of the prosperity and welfare of the city. So be it always to such fetid skunks as Webb."

Don't know what the editor of the Ledger, the rival paper, had to say in answer to the above, but his language must have been something fierce.

Brevities.

Major C. E. Haven, President of the Board of Directors of the Sonoma State Home, and Director in Valley Ford, and his condition Jos. P. Berry of Santa Rosa, were in Eldridge last Thursday on business connected with that institution.

H. M. LeBaron, one of the best known citizens in the county, was taken suddenly ill with heart failure, one day this week at his home in Valley Ford, and his condition is described as precarious.

Stone Bridge for Second Street East

At a special meeting of the City Trustees held on Thursday night of last week it was decided to build a stone bridge to take the place of the present wooden affair which crosses the creek on Second Street East opposite the Clewe and Duhring properties. With this object in view the street committee was authorized to secure plans and specifications for the contemplated structure and report at the regular meeting of the Trustees next month.

COUNTY NEWS ITEMS

Hop picking has commenced in this county near Cloverdale.

Victor Piezzi, well known in viticultural circles in this valley, has been elected President of the Santa Rosa Viticultural Club.

Chas. Ceresa while hauling wine puncheons from Santa Rosa to Melitta was thrown from the wagon seat and received injuries which caused death in a few minutes.

The Standard Oil Company filed articles of incorporation in County Clerk Wright's office Tuesday, and it is rumored that the big corporation is backing the development of oil between this place and Petaluma.

Ralph Rose of Healdsburg made a world's record in Seattle last Saturday in the hammer throw, hurling the weight 181 feet and 8 inches, in the rear throw his distance was 141 feet and 7 inches. In the meet he took first rank by winning the two first and second places, which gave him 21 points.

The treacherous Russian river claimed another victim Monday. Peter A. Salmon, a San Francisco contractor, while bathing in that stream with his wife and daughter, went to their rescue when they stepped off the shore into a deep hole. He succeeded in saving the lives of both, but before he could reach terra firma he was swept into an eddy and drowned.

$100 REWARD $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. AFTER

The Best Positions Are Still Open

Prosperity is coming. There is renewed life and vigor in every business and industry in San Francisco and all over the Pacific Coast.

Everywhere is heard the cry of business men asking for trained assistants. Never before have there been so many and such good opportunities as are today presented to the young men and women who have business educations. In fact, the very best positions are open to you if you are trained.

San Francisco

is the ideal place to get your training. Here are the best colleges in the country, living expenses are very low, private homes are open to students of good character, and a more delightful place to live is not to be found in the entire United States. We help our students secure good positions and help them obtain promotion in their chosen lines.

THE LIVERNASH-INGALLS NUPTIALS

Wedding a Quiet and Unostentatious Affair to Which Only Relatives and Immediate Friends Were Bidden

Miss Mary F. Livernash and Mr. J. C. Ingalls were married in the parlors of the Union Hotel in this place, last Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock. Rev. Father Lawrence of Benicia, an old schoolmate of the bride, officiated. Mrs. Jos. P. Berry of Santa Rosa presided at the piano and played the wedding march. C. W. Weaver of Healdsburg was best man to the groom and Miss Adele Livernash, sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid.

The bride was handsomely gowned in dove colored crepe over satin. She carried a bouquet of Burbank's Shasta daisies. The bridesmaid wore a gown of pink liberty silk and carried carnations. The ceremony was performed beneath a lovely bower of Shasta daisies, pink and white sweet peas and true lovers knots.

Among those present were Mrs. Jessie Livernash of Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. A. Koenig of Fruitvale, Alameda county, Miss Lizzie Tully, Mrs. Jos. P. Berry and Miss Gladys Berry of Santa Rosa, Miss Livernash, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Koenig and Miss Ruth Ingalls.

After a wedding breakfast the happy young couple took the Northwestern Pacific train for Santa Cruz, where they will spend their honeymoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ingalls will make their future home in Healdsburg.

City Trustees in Special Session

The Board of City Trustees met in special session on Thursday evening of last week, all the members being present.

President Breitenbach explained the object of the meeting to be to decide on the line of the water main being laid by the Sonoma City Water Works Co. on Second St. East.

After discussing the matter Trustee McDonnell made a motion which received a second from Trustee Wagner, that the water company be allowed to place its main on the street in question with the understanding that it conform to the grade of that thoroughfare, such grade to be furnished by Surveyor Press R. Davis. It was also stipulated in the motion that any expense incurred shall be borne by the water company.

On motion of Trustee Bates, seconded by Trustee Quartaroli, the street committee was instructed to procure plans for the building of a stone bridge across the creek on Second street East between the Duhring and Clewe properties. The Board then adjourned.

Lutgens Purchase White Steamer

The Lutgens have purchased a five-passenger White steamer in San Francisco and it arrived here on the Northwestern Pacific yesterday. The business of Lutgens ice cream establishment has increased to such an extent that the purchase of an automobile to deliver rush orders which have been coming in from all directions was an imperative necessity in order to fill these orders with promptness and dispatch. The ice cream made at the Lutgens establishment has become noted for its purity and excellence and we are glad it is so, because it is essentially a home product turned out by local skill and enterprise which should be encouraged by all progressive people in town and valley.

A social dance is billed to take place at Eagle's Nest, Agua Caliente, this (Saturday) evening. Joe Geroni, the proprietor, extends a cordial invitation to the general public to attend and assures all who do so a good time.

Ptomaine Poisoning

George B. Carpenter, the well-known farmer, residing with his family on the Baxter tract south of town, had a close call from ptomaine poisoning Wednesday night. Dr. Leix was sent for and found the patient, who had partaken freely of tainted meat, in a very bad way. Powerful emetics, however, saved the man's life when his recovery seemed hopeless. The next day the effects of the sickness had passed off and Mr. Carpenter was working about his little farm as usual.

SONOMA COUNTY'S ASSESSMENT

Serious Error is Said to Have Been Made in the Report of State Board of Equalization

According to figures given out by the State Board of Equalization of the appraisal of property in Sonoma county, adduced from data furnished by the various Chambers of Commerce in the county, a serious error, it is claimed, has crept into the showing made by Petaluma.

According to the State Board of Equalization's figures Petaluma's assessment is only 29 per cent of the appraised valuation, whereas every other section of the county vary between 60 and 67 per cent of the appraised valuation. According to Geo. McNear, one of Petaluma's appraisers, the State Board has made a big blunder in that it was over 60 per cent. The valuation from the various portions of Sonoma county as reported by Sacramento, showed City-Assessor Frank E. Dowd's assessments to have been as follows:

Healdsburg, 67 per cent.
Santa Rosa, 60 per cent.
Sebastopol, 67 per cent.
Petaluma, 29 per cent.
Country lands, 53 per cent.
Changing the Petaluma figure to 60 per cent, as stated by Mr. McNear, the average for the county would be a little over 61 per cent. They are, however, two other points not reported—Sonoma and Cloverdale. Mr. Dowd declared Saturday night that both of these would run over 60 per cent.

The Supervisors, Assessor Dowd Mr. McNear and other citizens were in Sacramento yesterday to straighten out the matter with the State Board of Equalization and to rectify the error.

GARDEN PARTY AT AGUA CALIENTE.

Catholic Ladies to Give Grand Fete at the Richards Resort Next Saturday Night

The next event under Catholic auspices is to be held for the benefit of St. Joseph's booth, which is under the supervision of Presentation Convent.

A big entertainment and dance is in course of arrangement by Mrs. Theo. Richards and it will take place at the popular Caliente Springs Saturday night, August 28th.

Every resident of both town and country knows Mrs. Richards as a woman of splendid executive ability, and failure is yet to characterize any undertaking attempted by her. Knowing this, valley residents feel certain that next Saturday night's Garden Party will be a fete worthy of patronage.

Some fine talent has been obtained, including the famous Gaelic dancers, who appeared at Caliente at a former entertainment. Other entertainers, equally good, will complete a most meritorious program. Dancing will also prove enjoyable, as good music will be provided.

Mrs. Richards, as usual, is untiring in her efforts to complete arrangements, which will result in her guests feeling that their patronage was worthily and acceptably bestowed.

THE PASSING OF A PIONEER MOTHER

Mrs. A. Bain Goes to Her Reward After a Good and Useful Life of Forty Years in This Valley

Mrs. A. Bain, widow of John W. Bain, who passed away here twenty-five years ago, after a long and useful life, died at Leix sanitarium last Sunday, at the ripe old age of 76 years and eleven months.

Mrs. Bain came to the valley with her husband forty years ago and located on the mountain ranch where she lived until a few days before her death when she was removed to the Leix sanitarium in this place.

When widowed the rearing of three small boys were left entirely to her care together with the farm. She was young and active in those days and bravely faced the responsibilities which the loss of husband entailed upon her. She kept her little family together and the farm free from debt. As time passed on apace the boys grew up and became a help to the widow, who had cared for them so well in their tender years.

The boys, who long since reached manhood's estate, are Robt. W. Bain, for the past six years a trusted employee of H. B. Goecken & Co., hay and grain dealers of San Francisco; John F. Bain, for the past four years employed on the Oakland mole by Wells, Fargo & Co., and Chas. C. Bain, who has had charge of the ranch the past several years.

The funeral of Mrs. Bain took place from Bates' undertaking parlors Tuesday and the remains of this good woman and mother were sorrowfully followed to Mountain Cemetery by a large concourse of relatives and friends.

Estate of the Late Walter Corbaley and His Young Son.

Mrs. A. E. Scammon has petitioned the Superior Court of this county for letters of guardianship over the person and estate of Arthur Corbaley, the fourteen-year old son of the late Walter Corbaley, the well-known railroad conductor who died so suddenly in Santa Rosa two weeks ago. The estate is valued at $27,500 and consists of a life insurance policy for $1,500 and real estate in Berkeley appraised at $25,500.

Enterprising Merchants

On the first page of this week's issue will be found the triple-column ad of Phillips & Tough, the leading dry goods house of Petaluma. Their semi-annual adjusting sale is now on and will last for the next ten days, and they are announcing some decided bargains in ladies suits and mens' and boys clothing. These goods have been cut down just one-half to make room for the fall goods now en route from the East. Read the ad carefully it will interest you and may save you money.

Scalded by Escaping Steam

Pete Ronconi, a cheese maker employed on the Reclamation dairy, met with a serious and painful accident Wednesday. While engaged in working around the machinery in the cheese making room one of the steam pipes burst and his left leg was badly scalded by the escaping steam. Dr. Leix, who treated the man, reports that his patient, although badly scalded, is resting easy.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our sincere thanks to those friends and neighbors who so kindly lent their aid and sympathy in our recent bereavement in the loss of our dear mother, Mrs. A. Bain.

Initiation and Banquet

The Sonoma Native Sons at a regular meeting held in their hall in Odd Fellows building last Monday evening initiated three new members, to wit: Edward Petersen, Jas. J. Maffei and Peter Perazzo. The initiation ceremonies were conducted by a local team of Natives in an able manner. After the business of the parlor had been transacted there was a banquet in honor of the new members in the dining room of the hall. Sonoma Parlor has made a fine increase in membership the past year and is in a fine condition financially and otherwise.

THE RACE MEET SEPTEMBER NINTH

Sonoma Driving Club is Making Great Arrangements for the Coming Event--Will Also Give Grand Ball

The members of the Sonoma Driving Club have been all activity the past month making arrangements for the great race meet which will take place on their track here on Thursday, Sept. 9th. The track has been put in speedy condition and box stalls erected for the accommodation of the horses entered in the races, several of which have already arrived in town and others are to follow. The horses that will compete for the purses are some of the speediest in the State.

The San Francisco Driving Club is very much interested in the coming event, and its members will enter a number of notable trotters and pacers. The races will be wound up with a grand ball in Union Hall in the evening, which will be given under the auspices of the club, which numbers among its members many of our leading business and professional men.

Prize Corn.

John Gorman has presented this office with a dozen ears of sweet corn which for size, beauty and succulence beats anything that we have ever seen. The ears measure between 12 and 13 inches in length and are between ten and eleven inches in circumference. The corn was raised on the Jesse Burris place on the corner of Spain street and Second-street East from seed imported from the East. The height of the stalks will average 11 feet for the patch which covers the entire frontage of the yard on Second-street East.

Fire Alarm Startles People

About two o'clock Monday afternoon the people of this place were startled by the clanging of the fire bell in the belfry of the City Hall. In a few minutes the streets were crowded with people and vehicles in answer to the summons which was for an incipient blaze in one of the Gilbert cottages on First street West north of the plaza. The firemen were promptly on the ground and soon extinguished the flames which were confined to an attic in the cottage occupied by A. W. Kendall, an employee of the local telephone company. The damage was trifling.

CALENDAR DAY IN SUPERIOR COURT.

Judge Seawell Presides in Both Departments and Disposes of a Number of Cases

Judge Seawell called the calendar in both departments of the Superior Court on Monday.

The will of the late H. K. Newland was admitted to probate and R. G. Newland and C. B. Shaw were named administrators in a bond of $14,200.

The final account of the estate of the late Jacob C. Keene was settled and distribution ordered. A similar order was made in the estate of Elizabeth H. Conner and John Anderson.

C. T. Snow was appointed administrator on the estate of Mary Ellen Snow, in a bond of $1,200.

An interlocutory decree of divorce was granted in the suit of Minnie E. Ronsheimer vs. H. L. Ronsheimer.

The petition to vest the community property of Katie Cerighino was granted.

Do You Feel This Way?

Do you feel all tired out? Do you sometimes think you just can't work away at your profession or trade any longer? Do you have a poor appetite, and lay awake at nights unable to sleep? Are your nerves all gone, and your stomach too? Has ambition to forge ahead in the world left you? If so, you might as well put a stop to your misery. You can do it if you will. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will make you a different individual. It will set your lazy liver to work. It will set things right in your stomach, and your appetite will come back. It will purify your blood. If there is any tendency in your family toward consumption, it will keep that dread destroyer away. Even after consumption has almost gained a foothold in the form of a lingering cough, bronchitis, or bleeding at the lungs, it will bring about a cure in 98 per cent. of all cases. It is a remedy prepared by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., whose advice is given free to all who wish to write him. His great success has come from his wide experience and varied practice. Don't be wheedled by a penny-grabbing dealer into taking inferior substitutes for Dr. Pierce's medicines, recommended to be "just as good." Dr. Pierce's medicines are of known composition. What the Jury Found.
Some years ago the body of a well dressed man was found in a field on the outskirts of an English town.
There were no marks of violence, and it was doubtful whether death had occurred from natural causes or if the individual had committed suicide. In due course the body was identified, and a gentleman who had been acquainted with the deceased was called upon to give evidence at the inquest.
Among other things, he stated that he had always considered him to be a man of marked idiosyncrasies, and his brain was continually excited by his irresistible fondness for chimerae of various kinds. The jury was evidently satisfied with his statement and immediately brought in a verdict that "death was caused by idiosyncrasies forming on the brain in consequence of excessive indulgence in chimerae," adding a rider that "it should be a warning to people to refrain from that and other intoxicating beverages."

When Your Head Aches

don't take chances with your head by dosing with headache cures. It's caused by upset stomach or inactive liver.

Nature's Remedy
REG. U.S. PAT. OFFICE
NR-TABLETS-NR

will settle the stomach and make your liver act without violence but effectively. It will remove the cause and cure the headache.
